

Rural Postal Service

HANDS OFF OUR POST OFFICE!

I live in a rural area of British Columbia, and we have never had a courier company that can make a go of it here -- too small a population, too isolated, roads too rough. The only way we can get letters and parcels is through the Post Office.

Barbara Brown
BC