Re: Post Office Review posted in The Citizen Paper
Aug 27/08

I can't believe the Canadian Government would even think of deregulating the Postal Service in Canada.

We have a great postal service now and the people of Canada deserve this. If it is done away, heaven knows what kind of Postal Service we will get. Certainly not the caring and reliable service we get now.

Right now, in this area, we have great Postal workers who care about their customers even though they are overworked and under appreciated.

Please think twice before this strategy is continued.

Sincerely
Mrs Joan Doucette
