

okay so they deliver on time most often,there rates are some of the lowest world wide and every address in canada,they make tons of money and bring well paying jobs to all communities . so why do you need to touch it??? have you ever heard the saying (if it isn't broke don't fix it ) why let friends of the government of the day have there way . Don't sell off the exclusive right

THANK YOU

proud canadian clayton leachman

b.c