

The residents of St.Vital in Winnipeg, Manitoba request that the postal offices require Canada Post employees to be bilingual. St.Vital has a large francophone community with a nearly 500 student k-6 school and a new 7-12 francophone school. There is a definite need for french services.

Carolyn Maguet