

I think it is a disgrace that Canada Post is considering closing the post office located in downtown Yellowknife. Urban centres need to be revitalized and government officials at all levels need to spearhead this initiative.

What is the justification for this proposed closing and who is responsible for this decision.

Deregulation of public services needs to stop until those immediately impacted by such decisions are consulted.

spencer tracy
NWT