

Privatization of the last public mail services? Makes as much sense as privatizing libraries, hospitals, schools, and roads. Some things are a public good, for which we all share the cost. My tax dollars are well spent when they provide such services. PLEASE don't add postal service to the long list of public goods being delivered into private hands.

Cathryn Wellner
BC